

Garnett S. Stokes

Franklin College Dean

Email: gstokes@franklin.uga.edu

The Franklin College of Arts and Sciences consists of four schools, twenty-six departments, and some thirty-odd centers and programs. My duties as Dean involve all aspects of operations for these many units.

These responsibilities include:

- Overall responsibility for administration of the College
- Program development for departments and schools in the College
- Planning and analysis of College operations
- Budget development
- Faculty recruitment
- Liaison with department heads, school directors, and College staff
- Representing the College to the University administration
- Fundraising and alumni relations

